

SAPORI ITALIANI

Universitas Nasional has been collaborating with the Istituto Italiano di Cultura in Jakarta in the past 12 years. Italian language has been taught as an elective course in the Faculty of Language and Literature. There has been also exchanged students to Universitas Nasional and vice versa to the Italian universities, among others Università Degli Studi di Napoli L'Orientale.

Sapori Italiani was opened by Italian ambassador to Indonesia, H.E. Benedetto Lateri and welcoming was given by the Director of Istituto Italiano di Cultura in Jakarta. The event was attended by well-know chef Alessandro Colombis, chef Claudio Rossi, and chef Stefania and Daniel Vigone.

